

Warm Up, Questions about the weekend

Ask any three of the five questions below to your partner:

Why is the weekend important in American culture?	ليش النهاية الاسبوع مهمة في الثقافة الامريكية؟	How does your weekend plan differ from the days of the week?	كيف تختلف النهاية الاسبوع عن الايام الاسبوع بالنسبة لك؟
What do you know about the weekend in the Arab world? (Hint, remember Friday = holy day for many Arabs)	شو تعرف عن النهاية الاسبوع في العالم العربي؟	What do you normally like to do on the weekend?	شو عادتاً تحب تعمل في النهاية الاسبوع؟
What do you want to know about the weekend in the Arab world?	شو تريد تعرف عن النهاية الاسبوع في العالم العربي؟	What do you normally not do on the weekends?	شو عادتاً لا تعمل في النهاية الاسبوع؟

Share: explain what your partner said for one question:

هو قال انّ - he said that

هي قالت انّ - she said that

Video: one boy's Friday routine in Jordan

—> what can studying the routines in a given culture tell us about the culture as a whole?

1st watch: Determine what is happening in the video. Answer two of the four questions below with a partner:

شو تشوف؟ What do you see?

شو تلاحظ؟ What do you notice?

شو تفكر عن الفيديو؟ What do you think about the video?

عندك سؤال عن الفيديو؟ Do you have any questions?

2nd watch: listen now for the following nine vocabulary words. Circle them as you hear them!

Cognates

routine - روتين

Words you know/have heard

mosque - المسجد

Friday - الجمعة

breakfast - فطور

come on - يلا!

New phrase

what do you want? شو بدك؟

New word/synonym

Hummus - حمص

Manakish - مناقيش

Family - العيلة

3rd watch, then discussion in pairs

Answer three out of the six questions below in Arabic.

What does the family eat for breakfast? شو العيلة تاكل للفطور؟

What does the young man do after breakfast? شو الشاب يعمل بعد الفطور؟

What does the young man do after he goes to Masjid? شو الشاب يعمل بعد المسجد؟

What is the morning like for the family in Jordan? كيف الصباح للعيلة في الاردن؟

What is the night like for the family in Jordan? كيف الليل للعيلة في الاردن؟

How does your Friday routine differ from the family in Jordan? كيف الروتين للجمعة يختلف لك و يختلف في الاردن؟

Homework, writing

Write a comparison on your Friday routine with that of the young man's routine. Focus on differing elements of culture between you and the young man. Do you pray on Friday? Do you eat Manakish or Hummus for breakfast? Do you see your grandparents on Friday? etc.

